STATINTL

1. As you will note from the attached buckslip the DDCI requested us to check on the author of the attached letter [redacted]

[redacted] with the office of Representative Daniel J. Flood. We have done so and Representative Flood's office tells us that they have not had extensive contact with [redacted] who is considered a bit eccentric and a name dropper, but they see no reason to avoid him. Therefore DDCI asks that one of your officers contact [redacted] explain that because of his tight schedule the DDCI regrets he cannot see him at this time, and find out what he has on his mind.
